

Java tools reference card

Configuration	Java Developer Kit 	Apache Maven 	Eclipse
How to specify the main class of the project?	<code>java package.Class</code>	<code>mvn exec:java -Dexec.mainClass="package.Class"</code>	Run, Run Configurations  Java Application, Main, Main class
How to specify arguments ?	<code>java package.Class arg0 arg1 ...</code>	<code>mvn exec:java ... -Dexec.args="arg0 arg1 ..."</code>	Run, Run Configurations  Java Application, Arguments, Program arguments
How to specify Java Virtual Machine arguments ?	<code>java -Dname=value ...</code>	<code><jvmSettings> <extraArguments> <extraArgument>-Dname=value</extraArgument> ... </extraArguments> </jvmSettings></code>	Run, Run Configurations  Java Application, Arguments, VM arguments
How to specify the class path ?	(win) <code>java -cp .;..\lib.jar</code> (nix) <code>java -cp ../../lib.jar</code>	<code><dependencies> <dependency> <groupId>... <artifactId>... <version>...</code>	Project, Build Path, Configure Build Path  Libraries Add JARs / Add External JARs / Add Library / Add Class Folder / Add External Class Folder

Maven and Eclipse are integrated through m2eclipse plugin – Maven goals can run from Eclipse. Maven commands' output can be viewed in Eclipse. Maven dependencies can be updated in Eclipse, and Maven builds can be launched within Eclipse.